2017 MALHM Annual Meeting and Conference

April 26-27

Chase on the Lake in Walker, MN

PRE-CONFERENCE · TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Investigating Interpretation at Itasca State Park

Sponsored by Bemidji Bus Lines

$10 members, $15 non-members

How does Itasca State Park train hundreds of volunteers and temporary staff to provide accurate and entertaining interpretation? Visit the park's historic structures and learn "train the trainer" skills from full-time naturalists. Receive free interpretation tools from the federal park system. Bus leaves Chase on the Lake at 1 p.m. and returns around 4 p.m.

Informal Evening Mixer • 8 p.m.

Meet at the fireside at Chase on the Lake's pub for an informal gathering with your colleagues. Cash bar.

DAY ONE · WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

Conference sessions, keynote lunch

In addition to our variety of sessions on collections, education, administration and other aspects of the local history field, we've added a third track "Focusing on Fundamentals" geared to college students, volunteers and emerging professionals. To encourage executive directors to send their whole team, we're offering a one-day rate for the first time this year. (See box at right.)

Evening Mixer

Sponsored by Minnesota Digital Library

Network and socialize with your colleagues at this free evening event. More information TBA.

DAY TWO · THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Conference sessions, annual meeting and Minnesota History Awards luncheon

You asked for sessions geared to executive directors with years of experience in the field, and this year we partnered with the Minnesota Historical Society to provide a third track of advanced sessions. In addition, we'll continue to offer two other tracks of hands-on and informative sessions in all aspects of local history work.

CONFERENCE RATES

Two-Day Rate: $70 members, $85 non-members

One-Day Rate: $40 members, $55 non-members

Our low conference price includes breakfast and lunch, plus the Wednesday evening mixer for all attendees.
