Join MALHM, the voice of Minnesota’s local history community since 1991.

The Minnesota Alliance of Local History Museums (MALHM) is dedicated to the motto of “peers helping peers”. Our members enjoy getting to know their colleagues and learning from one another to improve the local history community in Minnesota.

We offer an annual conference in April, collections workshop in October, and a Historic House Museum workshop in October. Membership is available at multiple levels to support the needs of students, local history professionals, organizations, and businesses that support local history. Each level receives a set of benefits, which are outlined in the chart below.
