Schedule

- 8:30 a.m. Check in at the door of the Musser (White) mansion. Socialize while enjoying coffee and refreshments on the main floor. Feel free to bring information about your organization to share with your peers: brochures, newsletters, business cards, etc.
- 9 a.m. How to Fund Your House Museum Projects
Minnesota Historical Society staff
Discuss project ideas and grants with Minnesota Historical Society staff. Learn about historic property projects from Laura Kindseth, Design Reviewer. Learn about interpretive projects from Todd Mahon, Acting Manager of Local History Services. Discuss funding possibilities for Minnesota Historical and Cultural Heritage (Legacy) grants with Carolyn Veesper-Egbide, Grants Manager. There will be time for your questions and to share your successful projects.
- 10:15 a.m. Morning break
- 10:30 a.m. Evaluation 101
Rachel Abbott: Community Engagement Specialist, and Katharine Wood: Evaluation Associate, both from the Minnesota Historical Society, will provide a brief introduction to evaluation: what it is, why to do it, and how to do it, along with a real-world example. You'll leave with tools and resources to begin using immediately.
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch at A.T. The Black and White, 116 1st St SE
We've reserved a room at the local café, winner of Minnesota Restaurant Associations 2016 Restaurant of the Year Award. Connect with your colleagues over lunch. (Cost not included in registration fee.)
- 1 p.m. Creating an Engaging Living History Guided Tour
Melissa Peterson of the Charles Lindbergh House and Museum (Little Falls) will discuss the site's newest living history program - "Families on the WW1 Home Front Tour." She will share various tools available to interpreters to draw guests into the first-person experience, helping them feel welcome in a fully furnished historic home, and inspire them to connect past and present in their lives today.
- 2:15 p.m. Afternoon break
- 2:30 p.m. House Tours: See both Linden Hill and the Charles Lindbergh House and Museum on guided small group tours. Get ideas and learn from your colleagues.
- 4 p.m. Tours end.

Location

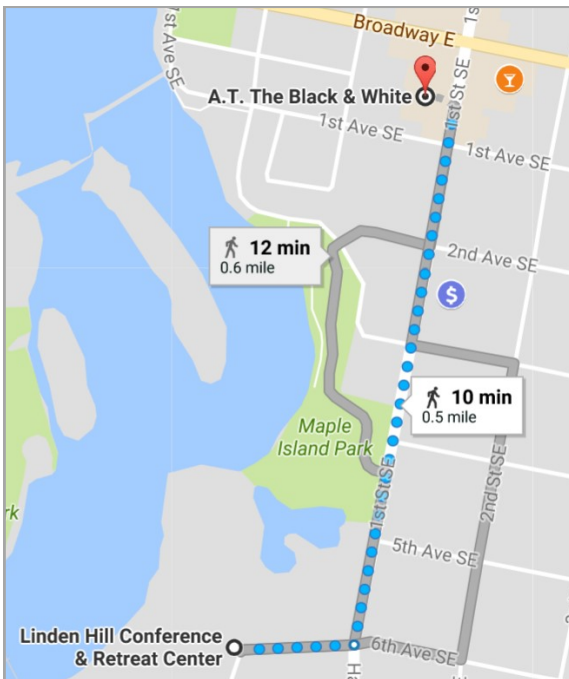

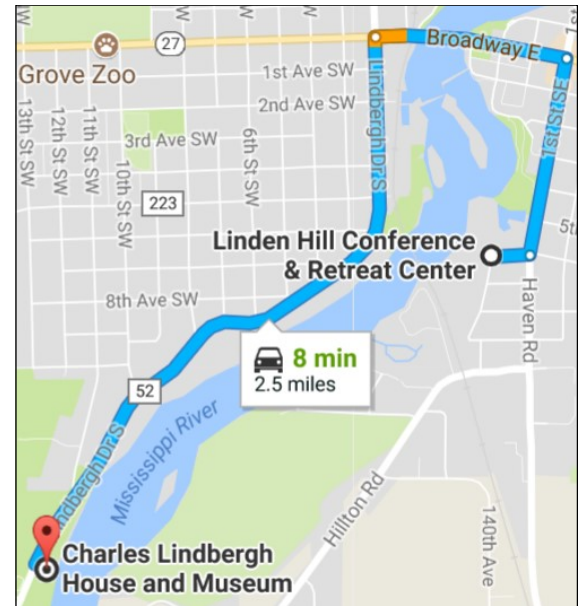

Linden Hill Historic Estate and Conference Center is located at 608 Highland Ave, Little Falls. Lindbergh House is located at 1620 Lindbergh Dr S, 2.5 miles away.

Thank you!

MALHM thanks Linden Hill Historic Estate and Lindbergh Historic Site for hosting the workshop. This event would not be possible without their staff, the Friends of Linden Hill and other volunteers..
